DETAILED ACTION

Examiner's Comments

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission received on 12/8/2008 has been entered. The pending claims are now 9, 11-17, 19-21 and 23-25.
2. Applicant's amendment has remedied all matters pertaining to indefiniteness in the previous office action and the rejections made under the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112 are hereby withdrawn.

Reasons For Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance. The prior art of record fails to anticipate or show in combination all the features of applicant's invention:

With respect to claim 9, a rotary impact hammer having a blocking element that blocks the forward motion of the striker and wherein the striking frequency of the striker is adjustable by controlling the blocking time of the blocking element, the blocking time being controllable as a function of the pressure level in a pressure reservoir filled with a gas that is located on the side of the striker diametrically opposed to a tool bit of the hammer.

The prior art of record show rotary hammers having a blocking element, but not hammers such that the blocking element is a controllable function of a pressure level from a reservoir within the tool. It is the examiner's opinion that it would not have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to combine or modify the prior art in order to arrive at applicant's invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
